

Data Protection Clause for customers' and suppliers' (individuals) personal data processing (Belgium)

From time to time in the course of their business activity, Chevron Philips Chemicals International NV, a Belgian company with registered offices at Airport Plaza – Stockholm Building, Leonardo Da Vincilaan 19, 1831 – Diegem, Belgium, Legal Persons Registry (RPM/RPR) number 0418.159.080 (Brussels), and/or CPChem's group companies (hereinafter collectively referred to as "CPChem") will collect, generate and process personal data relating to customers' and suppliers' individuals ("You"), subject to the following.

Personal information provided by You or otherwise collected from third parties by CPChem in the course of its business activity (the "Personal Information") will be processed in strict compliance with applicable data protection laws, in particular the European Regulation 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 called the General Data Protection Regulation (or "GDPR").

Personal Information may include your name, address, contact details (telephone and fax numbers, e-mail address), your function within your company, the history of your purchase or contractual relationship with CPChem companies and/or any other personal information which CPChem requires in order to ensure compliance with applicable laws and in its legitimate business interests described below.

CPChem will process your Personal Information for the purposes of performance of the contractual relationship, including for the management of orders and after-sale services, as well as for complying with obligations imposed by laws and regulations. Moreover, CPChem may process your Personal Information in order to send You promotional information on CPChem products, special promotions and initiatives such as events, fairs and exhibitions organized by CPChem or to which the same takes part, by post, phone, fax, automated phone calls, electronic mail, SMS, MMS or any other electronic communication means.

For the purposes listed here above or where required by law, CPChem may need to make your Personal Information available to its parent company, affiliated entities, branches, advisors, banks and financial institutions, professionals, independent consultants, potential or existing investors and/or acquirers, regulatory and/or administrative authorities, external data processors, courts, police authorities, arbitrators, experts, adverse parties and/or its advisers, which recipients may be located inside or outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"), including in countries which do not adduce the same level of protection of personal data as in the EEA, again for the purposes listed here above. In any case, CPChem will implement appropriate safeguards in line with the applicable data protection laws to ensure that data transferred outside the EEA will remain subject to the same security and confidentiality regime as if located within the EEA.

Your Personal Data may be transferred to CPChem, LP, with principal offices at 10001 Six Pines Drive, The Woodlands, TX 77380, in the United States, on the basis of a data transfer agreement conforming to the EU Commission Standard Contractual Clauses for the transfer of data to third countries entered into between CPChem LP and CPChem NV. Your Personal Information will also be gathered in a global database accessible by CPChem entities worldwide for the purposes listed here above. Any transfer of personal data to a CPChem entity located in a country outside the EEA, which may not provide for an adequate level of data protection within the meaning of the European Data Protection Directive, will be made on the basis of a data transfer agreement conforming to the EU Commission Standard Contractual Clauses for the transfer of data to third countries.

CPChem will only hold the personal data for as long as it is necessary for the purposes described above. As a general rule, these data will be retained as long as necessary to perform the contractual relationship.

You have the right to access Personal Data we hold about You and to have inaccurate data corrected or removed. As an individual, You also have the right to restrict or object to the processing and transfer of your personal data. Especially with regard to the processing for direct marketing purposes, You have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data for such marketing. In that event, your personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes. To that effect, You may contact the Legal department by e-mail at GDPR@cpchem.com. Finally, you can always lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority, if you would feel that CPChem has not acted in line with data privacy legislation.
