

Be sure to follow these simple
Safety Precautions

If you detect the smell of Propane Gas:

Don'ts

Don't switch anything electrical on or off

Don't use your phone

Don't strike a match

Dos

Leave your home immediately

Get all of your family and pets out of and away from your home

Leave the doors open for ventilation

Go to the nearest phone away from the propane odor and call your propane dealer for immediate, expert help.

For more tips on propane safety, ask your propane dealer for a free brochure.

Performance by design. Caring by choice.™

Specialty Chemicals

NOTICE: This packet/inset contains accurate and reliable information to the best of Chevron Phillips Chemical's knowledge, but our suggestions and recommendations cannot be guaranteed because the conditions of use are beyond our control. Chevron Phillips Chemical does not produce, distribute or sell natural/propane gas, and is not an expert in odorized natural/propane gas and the dangers associated with its use. The information contained in this packet/inset is a compilation of information obtained from various sources within the natural/propane gas industry. Information contained herein is given without reference to any intellectual property issues, as well as federal, state or local laws which may be encountered in the use thereof. The user expressly assumes all risk and liability, whether based in contract, tort or otherwise, in connection with the use of the information contained herein. This information is provided for convenience only and the end user is encouraged to independently verify whether the use of or reliance on this information is suitable for the user's specific needs and legal compliance requirements, as Chevron Phillips Chemical assumes no responsibility for the use of information presented herein and hereby disclaims all liability in regard to its use.